

2016 FACULTY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

natpe
CONTENT FIRST

MIAMI BEACH • JANUARY 19-21, 2016

ELIGIBILITY:

All full-time college and university media faculty are encouraged to apply. Selected applicants will be responsible for their own transportation to and from the conference.

A special day of faculty programs with media industry leaders will be held prior to the start of NATPE 2016. Faculty members should arrive two days prior to the conference for the day of special seminars and an opening reception.

The NATPE Educational Foundation covers the cost of your hotel room and most meals plus conference registration.

Educational Foundation programs conclude Wednesday, January 20, though the conference does not end until Thursday. Faculty may return to their schools beginning Wednesday afternoon or on Thursday.

APPLICATIONS AND DEADLINES:

Faculty must submit three (3) copies of all application documents

- The completed application (following two pages).
- A personal statement (not to exceed two typed pages) explaining how being selected to participate in the Faculty Fellowship program relates to their teaching and/or research.
- A description of your academic program (not to exceed three pages).
- A one page description of your personal television viewing habits and preferences.

ALL MATERIALS MUST BE RECEIVED BY OCTOBER 15, 2015 AND MAILED TO:

Greg Pitts, NATPE Educational Foundation
Conference Faculty Fellowship
MTSU Box 64
1301 East Main Street
Murfreesboro, TN 37132-0001

This is a writable PDF but your application form may be photocopied or computer-generated. Faxed or e-mailed applications will not be accepted.
